Communication and Announcements

Paul Braasch is the solid waste director that previously brought a waste aggregation proposal to Goshen Township. He passed out a request for bids, drafted with help from the prosecutor’s office. He requested comments within the next month.

Administrator Pegram stated that he received a letter from Shane Matthews thanking Chief Rose for his assistance with receiving information in regards to a complaint. He appreciated the Chief’s time. Administrator Pegram also stated that he received a letter from the Attorney General in regards to the BCI’s 2013 investigation of the property room. In this letter, the Attorney General’s office states that there is no finding of wrong doing in the interviews with

Viktoria McCulley-O'Bannon Terrace

Ms. McCulley noted that the service department phone number on the letter head does not work, and was surprised at the minimal number of applicants for the service department position. She stated that she thinks the website may not be the most beneficial for applications and suggested posting jobs at Kroger, the library, mobile home parks, and the bulletin board at the post office.
